

Celebrate American Heritage this summer at Spencer Public Library Tuesdays at 2 pm Call the library at 704-636-9072 to register for children and families with crafts and snacks

June 6th- Saturday at 2 pm- Native Americans from Greensboro with dancing and music of their culture.

June 9th- 2pm Fife and drum players from Guilford County and local reenactor Leslie Talbott telling stories of Revolutionary War.

June 16th- Sojourner Truth reenactor from Radford, Virginia. She will read stories from black history and act out the speech Ain't I a Woman?

June 23rd at 2pm- Perry Miller will set up soldier's tent outside and speak of Civil War Times. Leslie Talbott will be in Civil War dress and tell tales of this time in history.

June 30th-Johnny Dez- Elvis impersonator will perform and dress like Elvis to represent the time period of the 50's and 60's.

July 7th

2 pm- Dandelion Circus Arts- Young lady will dazzle the children with her acrobatic skills with ribbons and hula hoops.